Educational Wine Tasting Master Knight George Foote Brown Bag Wines

Restorante Portofino • Saturday, June 27 • 7:30 pm

The devilish George Foote is moving about. He is planning a tasting of wines that retail for about $15 but will not tell us what they are. This swift footed man will serve wines with the bottles covered in brown bags. Our challenge is to identify what wines they are. It should be great fun.

But I assure you that I have been studying frantically. George Foote will not fool me! Let me see, is the wine in my glass a red wine made white grapes or a white wine made with red grapes? This may become confusing!

As a hint, our friends at the Portofino prepared two flights of interesting tastes: (I tried to bribe them to reveal the wines to me but failed.) The two flights of tastes are:

Grilled Asparagus with Crisp Pancetta, no dressing just olive oil
Mini Crab Cakes with avocado- mango salsa
Sweet Pea and Parmesan Cheese Ravioli with garlic, lemon butter

Rosemary Roast Lamb Chop with white bean puree
Mushroom Risotto
Beef Braciola with red wine sauce

Will George include a red wine in this mix? You have to go to know.

The cost is $45pp. To reserve, please send a check to Joe Alt; Treasurer KOV; 8201 Tis Well Drive; Alexandria, VA 22306 so that he receives it by Wednesday, June 24. For last minute reservations email me at Ken@Haapala.com or call 703-978-6025.
