Thomas Jefferson Harvest Dinner

New Chateau (South) Rachele-Valas

38881 Irish Corner Road, Lovettsville, VA

Saturday • October 10 • 6pm

It is time to enjoy the bountiful gifts that nature bestows on this great Commonwealth of Virginia and the fruits of the labors from those who bring out the finest nature offers.

Our founding fathers, especially Thomas Jefferson, envisioned a Virginia that yielded the finest of all that land, waters, and vines can yield for man's enjoyment.

In Jefferson's name we celebrate the Harvest with exceptional foods, remarkably prepared, and wines exceptional for the occasion.

Master Herald Walter Rachele and Patricia Valas have opened their home for this special event.

Come join us on October 10, to ensure that Executive Chief Mark Marrocco completes the challenge of a sumptuous meal for this special event.

For reservations, please ensure that Joe Alt, Treasurer KOV; 8201 Tis Well Drive; Alexandria, VA 22306 receives your check by October 6. So that a proper place can be prepared for you, please email Joe Alt at joenpat@verizon.net as soon as possible

Wines have been carefully selected to excite your palate to totally appreciate the exciting menu below. Please note, we will include our exceptional double pairings.

Black Tie and Decorations Price: $150 pp
Last Minute Telephone Numbers: 540-822-4810, land; 443-280-2319 cell

Knight Rex Bambling and Gentle Lady Jennifer Crafts have offered to provide lodging for a few who reserve early.
